

Mount Vernon Community School PTA

Member Meeting
October 14, 2021

Dr. Diane Dubinsky

Dr. Diane Dubinsky received her MD degree from George Washington University School of Medicine and completed her Pediatric Residency at the National Naval Medical Center. She served as a physician in the Medical Corps of the U.S Navy for 11 years and then returned to private practice here in Fairfax County where she practiced Pediatrics for an additional 24 years. In addition to her work as a pediatrician, she has consulted with and worked with Fairfax County Health Departments on pandemic planning and emergency preparedness. She continues to teach medical students and is on the clinical faculty of Georgetown University, Virginia Commonwealth University, and UVA Schools of Medicine. She currently serves on the Back to School Task Force for the Virginia Chapter of the Academy of Pediatrics and has been a COVID expert consultant to several private schools and non-profit organizations.

Natalie Talis

Natalie Talis is the Population Health Manager for the Alexandria Health Department. In this role, she works with residents and community partners to assess local health challenges, and work together to find policy and systems solutions. During COVID-19, she has also served as the Health Department's Public Information Officer, leading pandemic communications and community outreach work.
