- Looking for volunteers, specifically international night, science night, spring bingo, gardening, and school need s- book room organization, library and lobby facelift.

2. PTA Bylaws – Megan Reing

We need to approve the bylaws but no major changes. We will continue to do a minimum of 8 meetings. Martha Davis – we should change one of the officers to dual language as agreed to at the PTA executive meeting. Marina Carter motioned to approve, Patrick Smith seconded. Our bylaws are approved and we will remain a PTA in good standing.

3. December Treasurer's Report – Patrick Smith

- Bank Balance: $97,958.48 (+22,769.63 since last report on Nov 5 – primarily increase due to FFF, also some spirit wear and pumpkin patch).

- Spending this fiscal year: $40,540.43. We will have big expenses coming up such as electronic sign for school, etc. Update on facilities coming from Ms. Burrell tomorrow in Mensajero.
- Receipts this fiscal year: $51,001.57 (+34,221.39)

4. Holiday Traditions – PTA Members/School Administrators

We started this tradition last year to share our family traditions for the holidays and connect with each other. Several families/school administrators presented on the traditions they celebrate at home for the holidays.
